

Sarojini Ruth, President of NAWEM, added, More than an agreement; this MoU is a rallying cry. By uniting our efforts, we aim to inspire not just individuals but entire organisations to recognise change toward better gender-balanced leadership, and we are here to help make that vision a to create a more inclusive business landscape. Harnessing diversity of thought and experience is critical for the continuous growth of . By uniting the strategic insights and network of the 30% Club Malaysia, -level advocacy and expertise in nurturing entrepreneurs, we aim to empower women to thrive as leaders in corporate Malaysia. We look forward to seeing business leaders in Penang driving positive change and advancing DEI in management and boardrooms.

This collaboration reflects the belief that three voices are louder than one, combining national and state-level expertise, as well as business-led advocacy, to empower women to rise, lead, and thrive. progress in DEI.

The collaboration aims to deliver concrete results, such as showcasing board-ready women in Penang, offering mentorship to develop their potential, and celebrating success stories to inspire change nationwide.

+++++

About PWDC

mainstream gender into policies, programmes and practices to achieve gender equality and social justice in creating a progressive society.

About NAWEM

The National Association of Women Entrepreneurs of Malaysia (NAWEM) champions the success of women in business. Founded in 1993, we provide the skills, knowledge, and opportunities women entrepreneurs need to thrive.

NAWEM goes beyond business. We foster a diverse and inclusive community, advocate for policy changes that benefit women, and encourage social responsibility through initiatives like our recent ESG conference. With a national network and chapters like NAWEM Penang, we're a powerful force for women and the Malaysian economy.

To learn more, please visit: <https://nawem.org.my/>

About 30% Club Malaysia

The 30% Club Malaysian Chapter was launched in May 2015 as part of a global business-led campaign to promote diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) with a focus on gender parity in Bndr-5((i)-6(tq(ro 60)4(a342tq(r-5((i)